THE ELECTION

LOOKS LIKE HUGHES, BUT IS DOUBTFUL

Depends Upon the Vote of California and Minnesota

Democrats Claim Wilson is the Winner

The election yesterday is a peculiar affair. First returns gave Hughes a large vote and the city papers of all parties conceded his election—giving him an electoral vote of over 300. Later returns, however, have changed, and at this time, 3 p. m., Wednesday, the result is in doubt, in fact it is said that all hinges on California—the returns from the several districts in that state coming in very slow, first the Democrats claim it and then the Republicans. It may take the official count to say "Who's Who."

Late returns show that Hughes carries Vermont by about 25000 majority. The Legislature as usual will be overwhelmingly Republican.

Lamoille County makes a good showing for the Republican ticket—giving Hughes 950 plurality.

For Governor Graham has 1123 plurality and Page for U. S. Senator has 1477 plurality.

Hardwick elects J. B. Hooper, Democrat, as Representative.

St. Johnsbury elects a Democratic Representative, Ovas. Whitney.

Linus Leavens for State Senator has a plurality of 1125.

The Very Latest

A dispatch from the St. Albans Messenger at 3 o'clock says that Chairman McCommick of the Democratic National Committee claims Wilson's election—he having 288 electoral votes. He claims the solid South and 18 states besides and says "it is a sweeping victory for the Democracy."

The Republican National Committee say the election is still in doubt—that if the Republicans carry California and Minnesota—which are very close, Hughes is elected.

The Associated Press will make no statement at this time, they are awaiting the official count of the doubtful states. So there you have it, just as it is!

Election in Morrisville

The election in Morrisville did not bring out as many voters as usual, the total number of votes counted for Representative being 505, with about thirty spoiled ones. E. A. Smalley, the Republican candidate won on the first ballot, vote standing as follows: Smalley 277, Smith, Independent, 157, Thomas, Democrat, 71.

In the evening about two hundred townspeople, including many ladies, called at the home of Representative elect Smalley and headed by the Morrisville Military Band gave him a rousing serenade. Mr. Smalley welcomed the visitors and in well chosen words thanked his friends for their generous support.

Refreshments of bananas, grapes and cigars were passed. From there a large delegation went to the office of State's Attorney Maurice, where they congratulated him on his election. Mr. Maurice made appropriate remarks and passed the cigars. Geo. B. Towne was also visited and passed the cigars.

The next places visited were the rooms of the Pastime Club and the Bijou, where returns were received until a late hour. The Bijou was crowded until after ten o'clock.

Mrs. E. G. Peo and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Brown of Concord, N. H., arrived Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. David Brown and Mr. and Mrs. William Peo.

Miss Olessie Clark, who has been spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Clark, has gone to Boston, where she has a position.

Misses Dorothy Small and Lela Nay have opened a dancing class for beginners at the G. A. R. hall. They have a kindergarten class from five until six and older pupils later in the evening.

L. R. Page took the household goods of Averill Alexander to Barre in his auto truck last Saturday. He returned by way of Waterbury and brought a load of furniture for Herbert Farnham.

H. A. Slayton has purchased a new twelve cylinder Packard. The car is a beauty and was shown here last week by Robert Wakefield of St. Johnsbury, Vermont salesman and demonstrator for the Packard people. A. H. Slayton of Oakland was taken in the deal and A. H. has the Pope-Hartford of H. A. Slayton.

HYDE PARK

Mrs. Delia Shattuck is home from Grand Isle for a month's visit.

Fred Gale of Chicago was in town yesterday, returning home from the funeral of a relative in Massachusetts.

Irwin Foster of Essex Junction has purchased the Hogaboom place in Greenfield and will move thereon shortly.

Mrs. Abbie Fletcher of Springfield, Mass., was a guest of Mrs. Eva Boyes and other friends in town the past week.

Election returns were received at the Hyde Park Inn last evening. A large number were present and enjoyed this courtesy of the landlord.

The Ladies' Aid sale and entertainment was a great success. They cleared about $90. Especial mention should be made of the tableaux vivant, which consisted of female characters representing foreign nationalities. "The smile that wouldn't come off" was an especially attractive feature.

Fred A. White, a former employee of this office, but for the past fourteen years in the government printing office at Washington, is in town for a short time. He retains his voting residence here and comes "home" once in four years to vote. He has an important position in the job department of the U. S. printing office.

Next lecture in the course comes next Monday night. Sumayeh Attiye is the attraction do not miss it.

Hyde Park Election

The attendance at the election at Hyde Park yesterday was good, but about 100 votes short of the full check list. There was considerable strife in the balloting for Representative. The Republicans had an exemplary young man as its candidate—Rollo W. Crocker.

In the Democracy they put up a strong man and had a good organization, in fact they worked harder and had a better organization than did their opponents. Hyde Park is a Republican town, but in this case party lines were disregarded and many who call themselves Republicans voted for the Democratic nominee.

However, Mr. Crocker had a good vote. The result of the first ballot was a tie, each receiving 141 votes, with a few scattering. The second ballot resulted in a victory for Finnegan, he receiving 144 against 129.

Mr. Finnegan in a neat speech promised to work for the best interests of his town and there is no doubt but that he will. He is a farmer, 38 years old, a native of this town and a young man of ability. We bespeak for him a good account of his stewardship at Montpelier.
